Scott Hutchinson

Chairman, Hutchinson Builders

Scott Hutchinson, Chairman of Hutchinson Builders, holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Civil) and an MBA from the University of Queensland. He joined the family business in 1986, becoming the fourth generation Hutchinson to do so. Under his leadership, Hutchies' turnover grew from $6 million to around $3 billion annually. Scott became Chairman in 2001 after serving as Managing Director for 10 years. Recognised as a 2024 Queensland Great, he has significantly contributed to construction and the arts.

Scott is also a philanthropist, supporting various non-profits and initiatives like the AEIOU Foundation for Children with Autism. He has been a sponsor of the National Association of Women in Construction since 1997. His passion for the arts led to the creation of iconic music venues such as The Triffid and The Fortitude Music Hall, and he serves as the official Patron of QMusic.
