Justine Flynn

Co-founder, Thankyou

Growing up in Queensland, Justine Flynn has always had a passion for making a difference. As the co-founder and director of Thankyou, she's helped transform a small start-up into one of Australia's top social enterprises.

Known for its creativity, innovation, and impact, Thankyou's personal care and cleaning products are now a staple in major Australian retailers, all with the mission of ending extreme poverty. Justine's leadership, drive for innovation, and unwavering commitment to values have been key in turning Thankyou into the powerful consumer movement it is today.

To date, Thankyou has given over $18.5 million to their impact partners across the world.
