AND TRUST

GUEST SPEAKER

Virginia Warner
Principal, St Hilda's School

Virginia Warner, the Principal of St Hilda's School, is a visionary educational leader committed to creating environments where every learner is known, valued, and empowered. In an all-girls context, she inspires young women and girls to dream boldly and lead with kindness, curiosity, and courage.

An experienced leader across Anglican and independent schools, Virginia is recognised for her strengths-based, future-focused approach to school transformation. Her leadership is shaped by her conviction that authentic agency and academic excellence together enable human flourishing. Energised by innovation and evidence-informed practice, she builds courageous, curious teams united in their pursuit of exceptional learning and holistic wellbeing.

Virginia believes there has never been a more exciting time to be a Principal, and that each girl holds a unique dream of brilliance that illuminates the possibilities of a flourishing future.
