GUEST SPEAKER

Graham Catt

Chief Executive Officer, Independent Schools Australia (ISA)

Graham Catt is the Chief Executive Officer of ISA, the national peak body for Independent Schools. His diverse career includes 20 years' experience as a senior leader in professional associations and industry bodies, in sectors including education, business, health, agriculture and animal health.

After an early career in communications, Graham co-founded and grew a successful agency before moving to join the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP) in a leadership role. Prior to joining ISA in 2023 he has been CEO of the Canberra Business Chamber, the Pharmaceutical Society of Australia, and the Australian Veterinary Association.

Graham's qualifications include a Master's Degree in Literature, MBA from Macquarie Graduate School of Management, and executive leadership programs with the University of Melbourne and London Business School.

He is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, is currently on the Board of St John Ambulance ACT, and was President of the Australasian Society of Association Executives (AuSAE) from 2016 – 2019.
