

Queensland Independent Schools SUMMIT

FUTURE GROWTH,
PROPELLING
SCHOOL LEADERS

GUEST SPEAKER

Anjulee Singh

Education Services Deputy Director, Independent Schools Queensland (ISQ)

Anjulee Singh was appointed to the role of Assistant Director (Education Services) in 2023. Since joining ISQ in 2020, she has worked in the areas of governance, school strategic planning, and compliance, and within education services leading the development of a range of professional learning for educators and school leaders including executive reviews. Since 2021, Anjulee has overseen the Teacher Quality team including HALT certification in the independent sector, workforce planning, and the development of specific professional learning across career stages with the long-term view of retaining excellent teachers in the profession.

Anjulee has worked in education for over a decade in secondary teaching, curriculum leadership and senior leadership both in Australia and the United Kingdom. Anjulee has a Bachelor of Arts (Human Rights and Ethics) a Graduate Diploma in Education (Senior Years) (Social Education) a Master in Education and post-graduate qualifications in social care and counselling. Anjulee currently sits on the Professional Standards Committee of the Queensland College of Teachers and is on the Education Advisory Committee of the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies.