

Queensland Independent Schools SUMMIT

FUTURE GROWTH,
PROPELLING
SCHOOL LEADERS

GUEST SPEAKER

Johannes Solymosi

School Services Deputy Director, Independent Schools Queensland (ISQ)

Johannes Solymosi holds the position of Assistant Director (School Services) at Independent Schools Queensland in which he oversees the delivery of the ISQ Governance Program. With experience as an educator in Germany and Australia, he has been the principal of two Queensland independent schools.

He facilitates board and principal performance reviews and consults on strategy, risk and corporate restructures. He advises board chairs and directors on effective governance practices and supports schools in the management of high-stakes regulatory issues. In a previous role, he conducted school improvement reviews around the state.

Johannes holds several not-for-profit board positions, has degrees in Education and Business Administration (MBA), and is a graduate of the AICD Company Directors Course and Oxford University's Executive Leadership Programme.